Sadist, Christmas Beat

I open my eyes - here's a new day I wish my hands will turn red once again I pant for your last breath - now is the time As my brain will call I am going to dive

Crying, shouting Is just a drone in my mind Here's my mercy My razor - my distress

I wanna see you naked, touch you heavily You should be glad, I had to choose

Crying, shouting Is just a drone in my mind Here's my mercy My razor - my distress

I keep on following your steps But I won't leave the dhrone It doesn't fit within I'm going to stop your beat
