

Saga, Gone With The Breeze

You're gone with the breeze, just like the leaves on the trees. gone of the times with your family, with your family.
You left life behind they knew they had your death war inside, but there was no way that you would compromise, compromise.

You're gone with the breeze but you'll always be there on our minds you're gone with the breeze, just a memory of those times You're gone with the breeze but you left a lot of people who loved you you're gone with the breeze but we'll remember you you stood against lies, you never hide, you stood face to face with the enemy , with the enemy I can saw the eyes, danger has pect your try you knew it all can end in tragedy, in tragedy

You're gone with the breeze but you'll always be there on our minds you're gone with the breeze, just a memory of those times

all end in devastation for a man who loved his nation another warrior they took away, yeah , they took him away in our hearts he did not die for ever more his flag will fly one day the land will stand in his memory, robert mathews

You're gone with the breeze but you'll always be there on our minds you're gone with the breeze, just a memory of those times

you're gone with the breeze, just a memory of those times You're gone with the breeze but you left a lot of people who loved you
you're gone with the breeze but we'll remember you
