

Sagisu Shiro, Promised Land - Reprise

We live and we learn
(With heart and soul and mind)
You can't control your destiny
To fight to the death
(Right to the bitter end)
Doesn't have to be the way
And from your mistakes
(You got to take the breaks)
You've got to find a better way
So follow your heart
(Your spirit guides you through)
To make this world a promised land
