

Sahara Hotnights, Keep Calling My Baby

Screwed up badly the last time Didn't take the chance to make it right, right, right Figured there was no next time cos' I'd been kicking up a storm I'd been starting up a fight

He said
Oh, Did I ever call you honey
when that name wasn't ment for you

I was standing ready in the front line where every little sound you make is a lie, lie lie So hard to keep my head tight Couldn't bend my chords when I tried, tried, tried

He said
Oh, Did I ever call you honey
when that name wasn't ment for you Did you ever see me running for a girl half as good as you Did you ever see me
Did I ever do it
No no no
Must be having one of these days made for messing up
I keep calling my baby but he's hanging up oh oh oh

I screwed up badly the last time Never going for another ride, ride, ride It told me something new that all the things we do are better left undone, undone, undone

He said
Oh, Did I ever call you honey
when that name wasn't ment for you
Did you ever see me running
for a girl half as good as you Did I ever lose it Did I ever do it
No no no
Must be having one of these days made for messing up
I keep calling my baby but he's hanging up

I keep calling my baby but he's hanging up(x2)
