

Sahlene, Runaway (Eurovision 2002)

Did somebody dare to tell you what's right which colours to wear, to laugh or cry you wanna be fair and maybe you're right lets burn our fingers stop the fight Always driving through red light babe everybody stops but me

Chorus:

Just run away to the stars
just run away 'til you're high enough i will be waiting above i'll make it happen', i've tried so hard How lucky you are your statement is fine because what you think is what you find Always driving through red light babe
everybody stops but me

Chorus2x

Did somebody say it's gonna be easy til you get to where you do belong you newly opened mind explains the reasons why you have to carry on Just run away to the....

Chorus 2x

Just run away to the stars
