

Sailor, All I Need Is A Girl

I've got sunshine pouring down on me
And the sea shining like pearls
I've got wine cooling in a palm tree shadow
Now all I need is a girl

I've got blue skies up ahead of me
And a real thirst to see the world
I've got time off to go and spend my money
Now all I need is a girl
For a girl with a gentle like sensuous touch
Is a girl who would leave me out of wanting for much Now with a girl in my arms to dance the whole night through Like lover do yeah

I've got moonlight on a starry sky
Just the right kind for pretty curls
I've got two seats for the late night theatre now all I need is a girl - Is a girl

For a girl with a gentle like sensuous touch

I've got moonlight on a starry sky
