

Saint deamon, Ride forever

A thunder will come
With fire and lighting
I'm riding with deamons
We're taking the road tonight
Surrounded by hate
From shadows well rise up
We won't show you mercy
There's no place to hide
Ride forever
Ride forevermore
Ride forever
Youll hear the power of the mighty roar!
Our enemies will fall
Get ready for destruction
Out on the highway
We will be victorious
Inside a dream
Where I've seen the future
We won't show you mercy
Theres no place to hide
Ride forever
Ride forevermore
Ride forever
Youll hear the power of the mighty roar!
