

Saint Etienne, Lonesome

I just found your letter doesn't mean a thing
You said things should be better
For you and me
Hey Baby if you want to leave
I can come as will
(Cleaning?) and change of scene
Bare foot in this world

You left late this morning
Didn't say good bye
And I feel so lonesome I could cry

I used to be so sure of you I didn't even try
Lost side of the things you do
For you and I

You left late this morning
Didn't say good bye
And I feel so lonesome, I could cry
A way from home
And I feel so lonesome, I could cry

I know you are happy
You told me your self
Hey maybe not exactly oh but I believe

You left late this morning
Didn't say good bye
And I feel so lonesome, I could cry
Yeah I feel so lonesome, I could cry
And I feel so lonesome, I could cry
