

Salad, Terrible Day

It's a terrible day for you
Cos he's left you feeling blue
All alone all alone all alone - you're all alone
All alone all alone all alone - the seeds are sown

Well the seeds are sown
Of discontent
And you're washed your hands of the incident
Washed your hands

It's a terrible day for you
Cos he's run away with someone new
All alone all alone all alone - you're all alone
All alone all alone all alone - the seeds are sown

Oh yeah the seeds are sown
Of discontent
And you've put your bedsit up for rent

All alone all alone all alone - you're all alone
All alone all alone all alone - Your hopes have flown
Yeah your hopes have flown

Well your hopes have flown
Into air
Cos you thought you had a life to share
Life to share
