

Salamandra, Fire and Ice

Two minds
merging into one
different worlds
keeping still in fight

You have cut
my heart
with your freezing knife
the most cruel part
are your blatant lies

It is time to move
and to start afresh
in a dance
of fire and ice

We've both
done foolish things
it's enough for now
let's settle the score

There is
no point of carrying on
with strife
it is not
a game
for us
any more

It is time to move
and to start afresh
in a dance

Let's break the deadlock straighten all things out right now no crashing
let's not mess it up

We are two parts
of a whole
too hot and too cool
we can't continue in that fight Two minds
merging into one
keeping still in fight

with your
the most
are your
blatant lies
