

Salamandra, Twilight of Legends

Ancient story has told
All of heroes long gone
Of the heroes who lost their lives
Deep in past in their severe fights
Nobody knows of their deeds
No one remembers their names

Long forgotten is the memory
Dead heroes of the past
Grains of sand lost in the sea
No one cares if they last

We have gone too far away
We will not hear the old voice
Speaking of the ancient days
Of peaceful times and wars

Long forgotten is the memory
Dead heroes of the past
Grains of sand lost in the sea
No one cares if they last

We have gone too far away
We will not hear the old voice
Speaking of the ancient days
Of peaceful times and wars

Long forgotten is the memory
Dead heroes of the past
Grains of sand lost in the sea
No one cares if they last

We have gone too far away
We will not hear the old voice
Speaking of the ancient days
Of victory and loss
