Salamandra, War of Evils

Seven days that are coming now Will surely go down in history Story that can't be found in the books or memory

Bloody fight will never end With powers of evil and its crimes We know it's greatly powerful at all times

Fear inside but not terrified Hiding hardly they are tired too much Everybody who believes in the fight don't give it up

Listen to the drums and their strong sounds Encouraging to the last night of ours Look up to the sky and feel your heart Tomorrow and on we'll be all apart

Want to see just smoke and steam around So set the fire and bring all iron down It's time to show the mystery of steel Our dogs should stay hungry to make it real

Evil the king of darkness Like eagle flying so damn high Evil coming from the darkness Eagle our sacrifice

Bloody fight will never end With powers of evil and its crimes We know it's greatly powerful at all times

Fear inside but not terrified Hiding hardly they are tired too much Everybody who believes in the fight don't give it up
