

Saliva, All Because Of You

Something's wrong with me,
Cause I can't even feel you now
Or know that this is real.
Am I too blind to see that there's something there behind your eyes and it's bringing me to my knees?
All I want is you and I don't care
All I want is you and I don't care
Cause all I do is wait in, wondering and hoping, that we'll survive it.
I know that all this is true.
All because of you.
Something's wrong with you,
The walls you build around you now,
Seem to fit you like a glove.
Something's wrong with you,
Cause stars cannot be found in clouds that cover up their love.
All I want is you and I don't care
All I want is you and I don't care
Cause all I do is wait in, wondering and hoping, that we'll survive it.
I know that all this is true.
All because of you.
All because of you.
All I want is you and I don't care
All because of you.
All I want is you and I don't care
