

Saliva, I Want You

I thought this was a perfect love affair.
Not like the other ones, not like the other ones.
But now I think I see things pretty clear.
Just like the other ones, just like the other ones.

But I want you, I need you.
That one that makes me feel alive.
I want you, I need you.
I feel like I've wasted all my time.

I feel like I've died and gone to hell.
Just like the other ones, just like the other ones.
There's no more excuses you can sell.
I hope you had your fun, but I'm not the only one.
