

Sally Oldfield, Andromeda Rising

Oldfield

Come walk with me and I will give you
Cherries from a newborn summer glimmerin''

Come lie with me and I will give you
Babies from a moonlit sea all shimmerin''

Cos I love you lover

I love you like I love the four high seasons

Come run with me and I will show you

Stars and lights that glow like spring on fire

Come fly with me and I will show you

Passions of the woodland flowers desire

Cos I love you man

I love you like I love the four high seasons

Come dance with me and I will show you

Rhythm of the thunder winds on sea sand

Come move with me and I will show you

Harmony that flows through the sea and the land

Cos I love you woman

I love you like I love the four high seasons

Come take my hand and wander in the

Willow river glistening with blue bells

Come take my flesh and wander in the

Sunny Corn that shimmers still at snowfall

Cos I love you lover

I love you like I love the four high seasons
