

Sally Oldfield, Answering You

You're calling me! Across the endless snow!

You're moving to me everywhere I go!

Come with me on a sleigh ride.

See the diamonds in the snow

I'll gather them all like jewels for you

So you will know

Oh I am answering you! With every breath and every step I take

I am answering you! With every move and every sound I make you are the morning wind on an open flame

You're the sun in my eyes, you're the healing rain.

You're calling me! Across the endless night

You're moving to me like a distant light

You waken me like the summer sun

Summoning the Spring to come

And everything I say and do, like this song

Is telling you

I am answering you! With every breath and every step I take

I am answering you! With every move and every sound I make

you are the morning wind on an open flame

You're the sun in my eyes, you're the healing rain.

You waken me like the summer sun

Summoning the Spring to come

And everything I say and do, like this song

Is telling you

I am answering you! With every breath and every step I take

I am answering you! With every move and every sound I make

I am answering you! With every breath and every step I take

I am answering you! With every move and every sound I make
