

Salt, Obsession

I've got your name on my lips.
I've got your face in my eyes.
I've got your breath in my mouth.
I've got your smell on my body.

Still I need you.
Still I want you more.

I've got your love in my heart.
I've got your thoughts in my brain.
I've got your life in my veins.
I've got your lust in my body.

And maybe there is too much of me in you.
And maybe this is too much for you to know.
Got to have a distance in mind.
Got to keep my eagerness inside me.

What have I become?
Now that's a shame.
I can't get much closer than this.
Now that's a shame.

Got to have the faith in my mind.
Got to keep the strength in my body.
