

Sam Brown, Hypnotised

So here's another story, a tale of love, a tale
Of hate. You talk of hope and glory but I
Don't know if I can wait here all alone
Will you ever know

Hypnotised I'm sliding under
But will I fall I wonder
And would you stay forever
A life of love or just one day

So here's another story, I sit and wait here
All alone. I just can't help but worry, would You leave me standing on my own. Here all
Alone will you ever know

Hypnotised I'm sliding under
But will I fall I wonder
And would you stay forever
A life of love or just one day
