

Sam Brown, I'll Be In Love

If you need a reason to remain think of me how I tried to tell you you were blind you would not see you know it doesn't matter if you're near or far away anything I can do
I will do to make you stay
I'll be in love
Who am I to tell you where to go or what to say we could have a problem to be solved it's not too late take a piece of freedom wrap it up and throw it away
you know it doesn't matter
just as long as you will stay I'll be in love
I'll be in love
when you're lonely I'll be alone
waiting longing for your touch I'll be in love
