

Sam Phillips, Heart Of Hearts

Verse 1:

Tears in the city
Nobody's really surprised, you know
My heart's taken a beating,
Existence is bleeding me dry, you know

Chorus:

Way down, in my heart of hearts
Way down, in my soul of souls
Way down, I know that I am a fortunate girl
To have known divine love

Verse 2:

The world is in shambles, I'm just a young girl
But its getting a little bit old to me

I'm already aching, the years have been taking
A little bit of a toll on me

Repeat Chorus

Instrumental

Verse 3:

Two in the morning, the siren is warning
That everything is not quite all right
The city is sleeping and I'm
Down on my knees in the night, tonight

Repeat Chorus
