

Sam Phillips, Love Is Everywhere I Go

going down this road again I finally know there is no end to the good

love is everywhere i go
looking through you
looking through you
looking through you

burning light inside my dreams i wake up in the dark the light is outside my door
I

looking through you
looking through you
looking through you

chasing every fragment i see
looking through you
love is looking for me breaking open the clouds i'm not stranded in time

looking through you
looking through you
looking through you
