

Sam Phillips, What Do I Do

What do I do when I want to Be as close as I can get to you
I feel like a cruel girl saying both yes and no
I want you to want me
I need to trust you though

What do I do when I fall through Fears so long and dark that I lose you
I feel like a lost girl letting my torn heart show
If you're so far away boy
How will you ever know

I feel like a small girl
Falling beneath your form
If I set you on fire - will you keep me warm?
