

Sam Sparro, Waiting For Time

Sorry I lost it
Something came over me
Is there a lesson
Somewhere in this
Awful tragedy
You didn't deserve that
Nobody does
Maybe we will make it
Maybe not
Only time can tell you
What you really got

Time is only thing
That can undo
Those things I said
I'm gonna have to wait
'Till you forgave me
In your head
Summer will come
But winters
What i dread

Your disapiontment
Isn't easy to bare
My mind
Is hard awaking up
To find
That you aren't there
Now that you've seen it
My demons revere you
Maybe we'll get better
Maybe worse
Only time will tell us
How much
It really hurts

Time is only thing
That can undo
Those things I said
I'm gonna have to wait
'Till you forgave me
In your head
Summer will come
But winters
What i dread

I dread to think
I've thrown away
The only love
I ever had Made a really
Stupid mistakes
Makes me really
Fuckin' mad
I wanna see you
Hhappy hun
It's me
That makes you happy
But I know you
Need a minute
Or a month or a year
To forgive me

Time is only thing

That can undo
Those things I said
I'm gonna have to wait
'Till you forgave me
In your head
Summer will come
But winters
What i dread

What i dread (6x)
