

Samael, My Saviour

So small in my greatness I am the one who never wanted to be so great in my smallness I am the one who knows he is not

Around and inside, I am everywhere ruling my mind, I am made of power started down below, but now going higher and higher and higher from one to ten, a use ten is one and one thousand million hearts beating under my skin

I am the word which means every word
I am the truth hidden behind every lie

Started down below but now
going higher and higher and higher

I the beginning, I the end I am the alpha, I am the omega
one thousand million hearts beating under my skin

I am the sword which leads every sword
I am the path which contains every path
I am immortal, I am glorious I am supreme, I am my saviour
