

Samantha Mumba, Til' Night Becomes Day

Sometimes you feel
Like you've been left behind
Sometimes the light
Can be so hard to find
Then someone tells you you're not strong enough
Then someone tells you you're not good enough

Don't believe a word they say
Everything will be ok
Let me take you to a milky way
We'll ride a star
Til the night becomes the day

Beliving news
Are thinking what's hard inside
Don't ever feel the need to Run and hide
Don't run and hide
Then someone tells you you're not strong enough
Strong enough
Then someone tells you you're not good enough
Good enough

Don't believe a word they say
Everything will be ok
Let me take you to a milky way
We'll ride a star
Til the night becomes the day

Don't be afraid to fly

Rise up and touch the sky
Just like a butterfly
Think of a lullaby
Dry all the tears you've cried
The tears you've cried

Don't believe a word they say
Let me take you to a milky way
We'll ride a star
Til the night becomes the day

Like the flowers in early may like the flowers
In the sunshine we will play yeah yeah yeah
With you is where I'll stay
We'll take you heart
Til the night becomes the day

Don't be afraid to fly
Rise up and touch the sky
Just like a butterfly just like a butterfly baby
Think of a lullaby
Dry all the tears you've cried cried
Til the night becomes the day

Don't believe a word they say
No no no no no
Let me take you to a milky way
We'll ride a star
Til the night becomes the day
