

Samhain, Moribund

Moribund

You're waiting. . . you're waiting

Inside this bloody world you wait

Goddam mean it

The breath that gives no life you gave (to me)

Got to go in

Moribund

What's set in play

What is done cannot be undone

You don't wonder what you done

Outside of life it can't be undone

(What's set in play can't be undone)

What's set in play

What is done cannot be undone

You don't wonder what you done

Outside of life it can't be undone

(What's set in play cannot be undone)

You're waiting. . . you're waiting

Into the blessed throws you give (to me)

(You) goddam mean it

Outside this bloody world you ran to hell

(The breath that gives no life you gave to me)
