

Samhain, Samhain

Go

Salt the dead, you close the veil
The changer of shapes alone on hooves
Autumn's cold brings the pagan dead
Who seek the warmth of the Samhain fire

Do you want a paradise

Do you want a sacrifice

This is the night to feast and dine

This is the night to laugh at death

Go go

This is the night to feast and dine

This is the night to laugh at death

Do you want a paradise

Do you want a sacrifice

Salt the dead, you close the veil

The changer of shapes is alone on hooves

And the autumn's cold brings the pagan dead

Who seek the warmth of the Samhain fire

Do you want a paradise

Do you want a sacrifice

This is the night to laugh at death

This is the night to feast and dine
