

Samiam, Charity

Down by the racetrack waiting with their signs
The ugly broken people got no place to go
And a guilty boy scout with his conscience in his hand
Buys some reconciliation

[Pre-Chorus]

Aint going to be me, no, thinking
Aint going to be me, no, thinking
Aint going to be me, no
Only 29 years left on my loan

[Chorus]

You stand there freezing on the side of the road
To remind me of all the good things that I'm so glad I own
The only reason I leave you in the cold
Is if I took you home to feed you, you'd be somebody I know
And on the corner you tell me the same old lies
Like I believe you gas can guy
Every single dollar that I gave you and you drank
How many gallons are in your tank

[Pre-Chorus]

[Chorus]
