

Samiam, Clean

I'd Like to hide away
Somewhere without light
Somewhere dark and warm no given chance to lose
Without a care in my head I could sleep right through
I gave it all away today
Thoes empty stares won't be from me
Theres not much to look forward to
Just as long as I can't remember
Took a shower today
Couldn't feel the water hit my face
Pinched the skin on my arm and I couldn't feel the pain
I guess my wish came trueso now may I not lose
I gave it all away today
Thoes empty Stares won't be from me
Theres not much to look forward too
Just as long as I can't remember you
