Samiam, My Eyes

In my eyes, in my eyes,
I wonder what you would see if you looked into my eyes.
Aggravation, insecurity that I holding deep inside.
I wonder what you would see if you looked into my face.
What? Look into my face, see what?
What grinding in my mind,
what grinding in my mind is in my eyes.
If it in my mind it in my eyes,
if it in my mind, it in my eyes.
My eyes, my mind.
