

Samiam, Sympathy

I wish I could be a part of your sadness.
I wish I could cry for you.
I hate to think of what you are going through...
but, I've never known,
I can't even sympathize.
I can't even sympathize, I can't even sympathize...
As I imitate your mood I feel so callous, so hard inside.
Because my eyes are dry,
I can't even sympathize.
I just hope that it will be OK along the way.
