

Samiam, Sympathy

I wish I could be a part of your sadness.

I wish I could cry for you.

I hate to think of what you are going through...

but, I've never known,

I can't even sympathize.

I can't even sympathize, I can't even sympathize...

As I imitate your mood I feel so callous, so hard inside.

Because my eyes are dry,

I can't even sympathize.

I just hope that it will be OK along the way.
