Sammy Hagar, Lay Your Hand On Me

I lay my cards across the table for all to see

An' I swear still you are not able to lay your hand on me.

Behind me I feel like something's movin'

It's tryin' to hypnotize;

So dark, a shadow of a shadow

There behind blue eyes.

Lay your hand on me

I swear I never tried to hurt you

So come talk to me

Your face, it's swollen with resentment;

Lay your hand on me.
