

Sammy Hagar, Loud

Yeah

Sixteen, I found my dream machine
Turn the key and every light turn green
Like Steve McQueen, I made a motor scream
And it was LOUD, yeah

Me and the boys would drive around
We search the dial until we found
One song we didn't want to turn down
And it was LOUD

Hear us comin' from a mile away
Like rolling thunder on Judgement Day, yeah
Hear us comin' from a mile away
Faster than the law allow

And we were LOUD
LOUD like a hurricane
LOUD like a roaring train
It sure was LOUD, uh-huh

Yeah, and I remember ol' what's-his-name, wooh
Young and bold, I took my aim
She lost control when she came
It was LOUD, yeah

Well, hear it comin' from a mile away
She sure made a boy a man that day
Hear it comin' from a mile away
I made my daddy proud

Well, she was LOUD
LOUD like a dirty dream, mmm
LOUD like a siren scream, wooh
She was LOUD

She was LOUD
Like a trashcan cherry bomb, yeah
Like a storm before the calm, wooh
She was LOUD

Well, I live my life at full volume
I live my life cranked to ten
The needle's in the red again

Yeah, yeah, yeah
In the red again
Yeah, yeah, yeah

Here tonight, it's crystal clear
Red hot lights and a hometown cheer
All my life, I've dreamed of standin' right here

Yeah, it was LOUD
Wooh, like a Super Bowl "(LOUD)"
Led Zeppelin playin' "Rock And Roll"
Yeah, it was LOUD

LOUD
Like a trashcan cherry bomb
Like a storm before the calm
It was LOUD, yeah, yeah

It was LOUD
LOUD like a hurricane
LOUD like a roaring train
Yeah, it was LOUD

Trashcan charr bomb
LOUD like Viet Nam, baby
Sure was LOUD
