

Sammy Hagar, Missing You

I remember the first time
And I remember the last
I can't forget the good times, baby
Why have they gone so fast
And I'll always remember
How good you make me feel
Yes, and I always thought if you left me
(huh)

Well it was no big deal

Chorus:

But its hard to describe, how I'm missin' you
Girl I'm not tryin' to hide, I've been missin' you
Everyday

We have big plans, but they kinda fell through
Now for the rest of my life, babe, I'll be missin' you
Sometimes I feel so empty, life has a hole in its side
I can't forget you baby, God knows I've tried
But its hard to describe, how I'm missin' you
Girl I'm not tryin' to hide, I've been missin' you
When you look in my eyes, you'll see I'm missin' you (yeah)

Well turn your back, and walk away
But just don't hang up on me that way
And I understand, we've been the best we could
(oh)

And if I could have you, you know that I would Cause girl, I've been missin' you

{guitar solo}

Yeah, yeah!

Well turn your back, and walk away
baby

But just don't hang up on me that way
(no)

And I understand, we've been the best we could
(oh)

And if I could have you, you know I would
Girl

I've been missin' you
How I've been missin' you
(whoa I)

Missin' you

Yeah - I've been missin' you missin' you

And I'm not tryin' to hide

That I've been missin' you.....
