

Sammy Hagar, Standin' At The Same Old Crossroads

Yeah

Oh, it looked so easy, baby
Out there on your own, woah
Mmm, it sure looked so easy
Out there on my own, woah

Ain't it funny how the world looks
When you're, when you're almost grown
Almost grown, almost grown

Don't worry about nothin'
You got nothin' to lose, oh no
Always want things to stay that easy, baby
Depending on the road you choose
The road you choose, the road you choose

Standin' at the crossroads
Standin' at the crossroads, baby
Same old crossroads
Same old crossroads, yeah

Mmm
