

Sanctus Real, Sink Or Swim

It is not safe to assume that I
Am like me... In anyway.
I do not even like the taste of
Broken words or broken promises.
I will not waste my time here.
I know what I've been called to be
I know it won't include me
You're trouble, You're wasted
You know I just won't take this
Sink or Swim
There is no place for you in what I am called to do
Heart undergraced, I do not understand the way...
You curse, you bend my words, you
Just praise Jesus to be heard.
When will we ever learn?
