

Sandgeese, The Santa-Less North Pole

This is a world without love
This is a world without love
Whatever happened to the world I used to love?
Whatever happened to the world I used to love?

Ohhhh
This is what its like
To live in a world
With a Santa-Less North Pole

No reindeers playing in the snow
No chimpanzees puttin on a good show, a whoa whoa
No trees just wanting to grow and to grow and to grow and to grow and grow
What happened to the world I used to know

Ohhhhh,
This is what its like
This is the result
Of a Santa-Less North Pole

Ohhhhh
Look up to the heavens
Who's that I hear?
Jinglin all his bells?
No more do we fear
Santa Claus is here!
Everybody grab your spear!
Cos Santa Claus is here,
