

Sandi Patti, Someday

Someday, when this night is over
And the star has faded
And the angels fly
I will look at You with wonder
Dreaming of this first night
When I heard You cry

Someday, You'll take Your tiny fingers
And with just a touch will cause the blind to see
Someday, You will walk with strangers
But, tonight, I'll rock You
Stay awhile with me

Someday, they will call You Savior
Hope of all the people light and life divine
Someday, You will speak the words
And touch the hearts of many
As You now touch mine

You will speak in love and wisdom
Prison doors will open
We all will be set free
Someday, You will walk among us
But, tonight, I'll rock You
Just stay awhile with me

My son, let me rock You
Stay awhile with me
