

Sandra, Crazy Juliet

you
you were my everything
you laid the foundation of my life

while
i'd been stranded in notions you handled emotions
by my side

you said: take a seat
tell you bout a golden ring married people lack emotion love is just a fight

crazy Juliet here i come again
let's have fun tonight
everybody needs somebody
crazy Juliet
the time of your life

you have been lost an' found i travelled the ocean
well you know

is the time for devotion my heart is in motion
like before

i say: watch the bride Juliet's got a golden ring
i don't need no invitation comin' late at night

crazy Juliet
