

Sandra, Love Turns To Pain

(Cretu-Hirschburger/Cretu)

Mother, I can give a try
Cause what I'm feeling
Conquers my mind

Mother, wall is understand
The time will be a healer
Adjust to lose a friend

I see your face
Those eyes so blue
I'm still under your spell
Leaving me you smile and wait
Goodbye

When love turns to pain
Big boys never cry
I can't play the game
Big boys never cry
So look what you're doing
Can't hold back that tears
I just go insane
When love turns to pain

Crying, I'm crying for you
You playing &quot;cool&quot; now
So what can I do
Hopeless, is driving me mad
I'm talking about the fever
That burns in my head

I don't know why you act so mean
I shiver deep inside
Leaving me you smile and wait
Goodbye

When love turns to pain
Big boys never cry
I can't play the game
Big boys never cry
So look what you're doing
Can't hold back that tears
I just go insane
When love turns to pain

When love turns to pain
I can't play the game...
