

Sandra Nasic, Stop The Crying

Take my hand
I just open my eyes
Take me through the shadows where no one dies
Where the cities are field
We walk on without shoes to the moon, to the moon

Leave that road
We'll get out of alone
I wanna give you back what I already know
This world is too free
And we're still growing apart from the truth, from the truth

Don't stop the crying
Don't stop the crying
Don't stop the crying
I'm with you
Don't stop the crying
Don't stop the crying
Don't stop the crying
I'm with you

Forget about those people who never let go
I'll be with you again when you're out of control
This butterfly birds won't give up all alone without you, without you
Forget about those people who never let go
I'll be with you again when you're out of control
This butterfly birds won't get up all alone without you, without you

Don't stop the crying
Don't stop the crying
Don't stop the crying
I'm with you
Can't stop the crying
Can't stop the crying
Can't stop the crying
I'm with you

Take my hand
I just open my eyes
Take me through the shadows where no one dies
Where the cities are field
