

Sandra, Once in a lifetime (album Back to life)

I think when you look in my face
you get caught up with my age can't imagine I'd understand let me let you know that I can I see that you're trying to be strong even when all hopes almost gone I know what it's like to hold on well I may be young but I've had my dance with a broken heart (it may not show, I might not be old but boy I think)
I know the hurt the pain you feel when you're torn apart
but at the end of the day baby maybe I can't swim but I'm letting go, diving in
I believe that in this ride your chance could come once in a lifetime
maybe I can't fly but I'm on my toes, reaching high
I believe that in this ride your chance could come once in a lifetime can't stay innocent and fall in love the path ain't simple enough even with youth on your side you could die from the pain in your heart I've come to know the taste of my tears that's something in common we share baby let me lend you in my ear
well I may be young but I've had my dance with a broken heart
(it may not show, I might not be old but boy I think)
I know the hurt the pain you feel when you're torn apart
but at the end of the day baby
maybe I can't swim but I'm letting go, diving in
I believe that in this ride your chance could come once in a lifetime
maybe I can't fly but I'm on my toes, reaching high
I believe that in this ride your chance could come once in a lifetime
I may be young, was torn apart
I've had my dance with a broken heart
I believe that in this ride your chance (heartbroken)
could come once in a lifetime
it may not show, hurt me so
I've had my dance with a broken heart
I believe that in this ride your chance (heartbroken)
could come once in a lifetime
I think when you look in my face
you get caught up with my age
can't imagine I'd understand
let me let you know that I can
maybe I can't swim but I'm letting go, diving in
I believe that in this ride your chance could come once in a lifetime
maybe I can't fly but I'm on my toes, reaching high
I believe that in this ride your chance could come once in a lifetime
I may be young, was torn apart
I've had my dance with a broken heart
I believe that in this ride your chance (heartbroken)
could come once in a lifetime
it may not show, hurt me so
I've had my dance with a broken heart
I believe that in this ride your chance (heartbroken)
could come once in a lifetime
