Sandy, Help Me Let Go

I could look in your eyes
And pretend they dont lie
That you dont love someone else
I could hold you all night
And forget its not right
But id be foolin myself

My head is tellin me that i shouldnt stay
Bute each time i reach the door
My heart is in the way

So tell me you never loved me
That you dont want me and baby make it easy
Just watch me fall
Dont touch me at all
Say youre not gonna be there
That you dont really care
Tell me what i dont wanna hear
All that i need to know
To help me let go

I could lie in your arms
You let this go on
For all the wrong
Reasons i would stay
You would make love to me
And id make believe

Make believe nothing has Changed

My pride is telling me
That i gotta leave
But my emotions they let me down
They make me turn around

So tell me you never...
To help me say no to my heart
Cos i cant stop loving Everything that you are

&#039;so tell me you never...
