

Sara Evans, I Give In

When I look at you
I see the souls of our unborn children
If I reach for you
Will you take my hand?
Are you willing?
You turn more then the music on
But will you be there by my side at the dawn
Then I'll say...

CHORUS

All right, I give in
I will dance with you just this one time
And all night
We will turn and spin
Then stand eye to eye at the sunrise
And you offer love
And it all begins when I say
All right, I give in

If I sing for you,
Would it be the sweetest sound you've ever heard?
And I if I pray for you,
Will you know that I believe every word?
You build me a house on stone
Will you promise me I'm never gonna be alone?

Then I'll say....

REPEAT CHORUS

Bridge:

You turn more then the music on...
But will you be there by my side at the dawn?

Then I'll say...

REPEAT CHORUS
