

Sara Evans, To Be Happy

if i had one wish i would wish for two for me and you
to be happy

with the way things are sometimes it gets hard but we've come so far
to be happy

yeah i dont think that im complaining sometimes it keeps on raining oh but dont be frightened by thunder and lightning the sun comes out and the flowers grow and you find you're already on the road
to be happy

if i had one prayer to pull out of thin air everyone, everywhere, would be happy

we'd hand out valentines i'd be yours, you'd be mine there's a place, there's a time

oh, i dont think that im complaining

yeah we fuss and we fight we can't see the light we wake up and decide we dont need to be right

i dont think that im complaining
to be happy

yeah to be happy
