

Sara Evans, Tonight

If I had a weakness you sure found it tonight
Some hidden desperation you saw floatin' in my eye moments just like these baby wrong can feel so right and I, I dont wanna go home tonight

I've held it all together as long as I can theres pieces of me fallen right into ur hands and don't the lies come easy baby when the truth just aint worth the fight but I, I dont wanna go home tonight

Chorus:
So lay me down easy hold on tight tell me I'm the only one you see tonight Lonely woman, lonely man theres just some things only lonely understand

I might be just a sinner who wants to be a saint One justifies the reason oh oh one understands the pain and I don't know what's wrong baby and I sure don't know what's right but I, I don't wanna go home tonight....

Chorus

Tonight...
