

Sara James, My Wave

I don't care what you think I should do
You don't appreciate the small things like I do
Like heaven no nice
When I'm alone it feels like fairytales, yeah

From myself a little piece of magic on my own
Ain't nobody's taking anything from me no more
Break away, break away
I don't need your Vibes
There is nothing that can stop me when I'm on my own

All day, all night
I will learn to fly
Spread my wings out
And touch the sky
All day, all night
It's just me for myself
Lovin' me for myself
Ridin' on my own wave

My wave, my wave
My wave, my wave
My wave, my wave

Don't think you know me, no
You only want my attention, I'll leave you waitin', stop
Making you see
Over what has been and just move on, yeah

From myself a little piece of magic on my own
Ain't nobody's taking anything from me no more
Break away, break away
I don't need your waves
There is nothing that can stop me when I'm on my own

All day, all night
I will learn to fly
Spread my wings out
And touch the sky
All day, all night
It's just me for myself
Lovin' me for myself
Ridin' on my own wave

My wave, my wave
My wave, my wave
My wave, my wave
Ridin' on my own wave
My wave, my wave
My wave, my wave
My wave, my wave
