

Sara May, All Alone

I don't wanna cry so much.
I don't wanna miss you why you are gone
Packed yours bags and left me baby.
Why so easy was to mess
With my mind and with my heart how came I
Closed my eyes to all world baby.
So you left me all alone
Didn't think about me baby
Left me without saying by
I was baging you to stay
So you left me all alone
No I won't believe again
I don't wanna love tonight
I can't stand to feel this pain
I thought that you are the one
Started give you all my heart how came I
Was so blinded by yours lies.
Everybody tolded me that
All this time you lied to me but your eyes
Made me fall into this mees.
