

Sara Paxton, Temporary

One of those days I'm doubting everything just...
One of those days I'm lingering, wondering...
One of those times I feel like I've never been so...
How can I get outta
This hole I'm sinking deep in.
I remind myself
It's only temporary
I will find myself... (yeah, yeah).
Gotta be a way up
I don't wanna stay down till I can't breath
Just remind me...
What if I try to
Run the other way
Will I remember who I was yesterday?
I don't believe that the voices in my head
They wanna pull me in but
I'm not that desperate yet.
I remind myself
It's only temporary
I will find myself... (yeah, yeah).
Gotta be a way up
I don't wanna stay down till I can't breath...
Underneath the weight inside my room is something beautiful for now...
I'll barely reach
I remind myself
It's only temporary
I will find myself... yeah, yeah
I'm stuck inside my own mind
It isn't necessary
I will find myself
I remind myself
It's only temporary
I'm right behind myself (yeah, yeah, yeah)
Gotta be a way up
I don't wanna stay down till I can't breath
Just remind me (the weight inside my room is something beautiful)
Just remind me...
One of those days I'm doubting everything
It's only temporary...
